

The Home Place

Personal Care Home*

Atlanta, GA

Narrative:

The Home Place Personal Care Home opened more than 36 years ago. In that time, Margery Ponder and her care staff have provided care to well over 100 elders. Ms. Ponder's dream was to be a community solution for individuals needing a "Home Away From Home".

Caregivers:

Judy Ponder, Yasmeen Qadim'asil and Myrtle Blackwell

Caregiver Experience:

Ms. Ponder has owned and operated the Personal Care Home since 1979. In 1999, daughter Judy joined her as a full-time caregiver. In 2015, granddaughter Yasmeen joined them to carry on the family tradition of elder care. Ms. Blackwell has nearly 10 years' experience caring for family members and other elders.

Home Description:

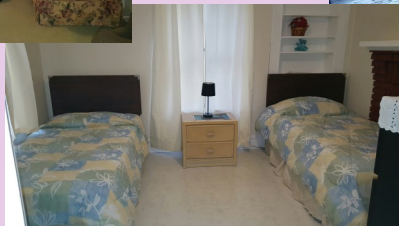

The Home Place is a licensed 6-bed home in Northwest Atlanta. The house sits on a large lot shaded by a grove of trees with a fenced in back yard. The Personal Care Home includes a 3-season wrap around porch, three shared bedrooms and 1-1/2 baths, dining room and living room. The home is on the MARTA bus line.

Neighborhood & Recreational Activities:

The Home Place is located in Fulton County off Interstates 20 and 285. Just 15 minutes from downtown, it is near adult day programs, churches, hospitals, restaurants, senior center and shopping areas. In the home, the residents may participate in activities such as bingo, crafts, devotion, memory games, and puzzles. The home enjoys celebrating all birthdays and holidays.

Meals & Transportation:

The Home Place provides three home-cooked meals daily along with two snacks. All meals are tailored to the individual resident's preferences and dietary needs. The home provides transportation to planned outings
