

Robin and Jerry Lanier
Statesboro, GA

Lanier Host Home Profile

Brief narrative of home: Mrs. Lanier is an experienced caregiver who has traits including patience and being a creative problem-solver. She currently works with DD Individuals and is a positive, calming influence on anyone who has spent time with her.

Caregivers: Robin & Jerry Lanier

Caregivers experience: Robin has many years of experience in foster care, as well as experience working with DD Individuals in the day services setting and currently has an Altrus Host Home with one Individual (male). Both home providers have experience as caregivers as they are both parents.

Home description: The home has an open floor plan inside. It is a one story with three bedrooms and two baths located in a small neighborhood in Bulloch County. The home is not wheelchair accessible.

Neighborhood/local recreational activities: Less than 5 miles from downtown Statesboro, close to shopping, restaurants and a variety of recreational activities.

Ideal placement: Someone who would get along well with the Individual who currently lives in the host home. Also, someone who would do well in the community as the Lanier's are very active in their church & Mrs. Lanier teaches music four days a week.
